

JEREMY L. GLICK MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

University of Rochester/Alpha Delta Phi

Background

The scholarship was established shortly after the tragic 9/11 events of 2001 to memorialize the sacrifice and heroism of Jeremy L. Glick, a 1993 graduate of the University of Rochester and member of Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity. Jeremy was one of the passengers aboard Flight 93 who banded together in a heroic and successful effort to thwart terrorist efforts to crash the plane into the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C.

Purpose

While an undergraduate, Jeremy was involved in extra curricular activities including sports, leadership of the fraternity and student life groups, and actively participated in the Alpha Delta Phi literary program. At the same time, he required financial aid, so it is appropriate that this scholarship benefit an undergraduate who is involved in campus wide activities based on need, not merit.

Eligibility

Award(s) will be made to undergraduate students of the University of Rochester in good standing and members of a College recognized and Accredited fraternity or sorority. Applications should be directed to the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Affairs. Completed applications are due on or before March 2, and the monetary award will be effective for the academic year that begins in the following fall semester.

Selection Process

A selection committee will be organized annually in the spring semester by the Genesee Graduate Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi and consist of representatives of the following campus organizations: Office of Fraternity and Sorority Affairs, Hellenic Alumni Council, Genesee Graduate Chapter, Alpha Delta Phi Rochester Chapter and up to three undergraduate delegates-at-large, one representing Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity and the two current academic year recipient(s) of the Jeremy L. Glick Memorial Scholarship. The committee will select as winners one or more students who qualify for financial aid and who the committee feels best embody the spirit of the award, preferably one male and one female student. Awards are for one academic year only; winners cannot reapply in successive years.

Notification of Recipient(s)

The committee will notify the recipient(s) of their selection.

Award Presentation

The award(s) will be presented at a ceremony held in April, in coordination with the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Affairs.
