Sexual Conduct

- Sexual conduct of any kind will not be tolerated and is grounds for immediate dismissal from Pre-College Programs.
- Parents will be notified of any such behavior.

Discrimination, Harassment, and Hazing

Behavior that constitutes discrimination, harassment, retaliation, or hazing is prohibited and may result in dismissal from the program. Such behavior can only be addressed if it is made known. All students are encouraged to report violations of this policy to program staff.

- Harassment consists of any unwanted conduct that is intended to cause, or could reasonably be expected to cause, an individual or group to feel intimidated, demeaned, or abused, or to fear or have concern for their personal safety—where this conduct could reasonably be regarded as so severe, persistent, or pervasive as to disrupt the living, learning, and/or working environment of the individual or group. Sexual harassment is harassment of a sexual nature.
- Discrimination is (1) any conduct (2) that adversely affects or impacts an individual’s or group’s ability to function and participate as a member of the University community (3) because of their age, color, disability, ethnicity, marital status, military status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, veteran status, or other status protected by law, or because of their perceived or actual affiliation or association with such individuals or groups.
- Retaliation is any act intended or likely to dissuade a reasonable person from making a complaint or providing information about the discrimination or harassment.
- Hazing is prohibited. Hazing is any activity related to joining, or ongoing membership in, any organization that intentionally or recklessly creates a situation that can reasonably be expected to cause physical or psychological injury, discomfort, embarrassment, or degradation. A person’s willingness to participate in the activity does not keep it from qualifying as hazing. Some examples of hazing include but are not limited to activities that cause excessive fatigue, forced consumption of any kind, or actions that interfere with the pursuit of ordinary activities. Scavenger hunts and road trips may constitute hazing, and therefore require explicit and prior approval of the appropriate director or dean.
- Bullying, including verbal, physical, and cyberbullying is prohibited. Bullying is purposeful, aggressive, negative, repeated, and unwelcomed harassment and/or attacks on others where there is an imbalance of power. Bullying can include behaviors such as physical violence, verbal taunts, name-calling and put-downs, or threats and intimidation.
- The University is committed to preventing unlawful discrimination, harassment, bullying, hazing, and retaliation. Upon learning that any such conduct has occurred, the University will take reasonable and appropriate corrective action to mitigate its effects and prevent such conduct from reoccurring in the future.

Opportunities for Engagement

Your experience with Pre-College Programs will be largely determined by the choices you make, the time and energy you invest, and your willingness to actively engage in classes and activities. This summer should be one you can take pride in and it should connect you to a productive and successful future. By the end of the program, you will know more about our campus, yourself, and your interests. During the program, you’ll get to know more about some of the following resources:

- Faculty, administrators, and staff: You will have an opportunity to meet several University faculty and staff members. Some will be teaching your courses, others are administrators and staff of the Office of Admissions, and others work in offices around campus. These staff members will become familiar faces during your time here and can be resources to you in the future.
- Pre-College staff: Your Pre-College Counselors are all current students here at the University of Rochester. They will introduce you to our campus and expose you to some of the experiences and opportunities they have enjoyed while at Rochester. The PCCs can pass along a few helpful hints and assist you with any questions or difficulties you might have.
- Fellow Pre-College students: Your fellow Pre-College participants come from cities and towns across the world. They will arrive with experiences and interests that are different from your own and will introduce you to new ideas. Being open to learning and having fun with all of the students you encounter will provide you with a network of friendships and opportunities to grow!
- Campus life: You will learn your way around campus—the libraries, classrooms, dining halls, athletic facilities, residence halls, computer centers, the chapel, and Wilson Commons. Your PCCs will also give you a glimpse of the variety of clubs and activities they enjoy on campus. Throughout the summer, you’ll have the chance to try out a variety of things that may be new to you.

Learning about these resources is an important first step in reflecting on your own interests as you transition from high school to college. We encourage you to use the experience and knowledge you gain to begin inquiring and seeking out the things that might be important to you as you start to think about college. We offer our very best wishes, and are happy you’re here. Meliora!
