Interfaith and Religious Life

AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

Join the Interfaith Chapel and the faith leaders at U of R in a virtual Open House dedicated to highlight the rich religious life on campus. Monday, April 20th at 3pm EST/ 12pm PST

Students admitted to the University of Rochester and their families are invited to join the staff and student leaders who create vibrant religious life for the University. During this Open House, attendees will have the opportunity to learn about interfaith life on campus as a whole as well as break into smaller groups and speak to individual faith groups about specific needs and programs. We can't wait for you to meet the following groups!
